Sharing the post directly helps provide proper credit, protect copyright, and ensure they have the most up-to-date and current file available including any change of terms. It also provides access to additional resources that support this trivia game. Thank you for respecting copyright and helping to protect my hard work!

How to Print Guide:

- Choose which format you prefer and print the specific pages.
 - Pages 2-3 can be printed double-sided as a 1-page trivia sheet. Print flipping on the long edge to print on both sides of the paper.
 - Page 4 can be printed with all 50 questions on a single page, but the font may be hard for some to read.
 - Pages 5-9 are sized for you to print and cut into strips.

How to Play:

- For the 1-page trivia questions, assign one person to read all the trivia questions, as the answer are on the same page. Play as individuals or create teams to compete taking turns answering questions.
- For the trivia question slips, I recommend you print each page on a different color. Simply put in 5 different colored papers into your printer, then print! Then, you can let everyone know the 5 unique categories and what color each category is. Have one person draw a question and let everyone else try to guess the answer! The first to guess correctly gets to pick the next trivia question.
- Most questions are easy for children of all ages but there are a few trickier questions in the mix for parents to join in on the fun!
